news from the heart

FEBRUARY

YOU KEPT A FAMILY TOGETHER

When our son was life-flighted to Geisinger, my husband and I were not sure what our days ahead would look like. Having four other young children and living an hour away put uncertainty in our lives.

However, the Ronald McDonald House of Danville came to the rescue! Although we did not stay overnight because of our other's children's needs, we were able to utilize the House Day Guest program. We would had been lost without the help, gratitude, and resources that the Ronald McDonald House of Danville provided us during a time of uncertainty as we commuted back and forth from our home.

The extremely generous and caring staff came in to offer an ear to listen and converse with, which helped ease the emotional stress. Being at the House, we were able to interact with the other families that were going through similar situations. The House's pure existence helped create a web of hope and companionship amongst us that was deeply comforting during difficult times for everyone there.

Had we not been made aware of the House; we would not have known what we would do with our day outside of visiting and seeing our baby. It provided the much-needed distraction and comfort of being able to be at the House while our newborn baby was receiving the necessary care from the doctors and nurses just steps away.

Another big takeaway was that there was always food and drinks provided around the clock for us to enjoy. It was the meals that were donated that helped eliminate the financial stress for us. I am forever grateful for all that the Ronald McDonald House of Danville did for my husband and I during that most difficult time and will never forget it.
